Adv. - Mid. While the earth was shaking and the skies threatened to fall, the army was busily engaged in its normal peacetime activities such as evaluating the "fitness" of its officers. Not only in their performance of specific duties — but in how "suitably" and "desirably" they and their wives were "representatives of their country and their army as a team"! Packard - Pocket 91, Wife

ROY ERICKSON COMPANY

WHOLESALE

VETERINARY HEALTH PRODUCTS for POULTRY, TURKEYS, LIVESTOCK

PHONE 434-3808 290 C & W DRIVE

HARRISONBURG, VIRGINIA

non-officers the army also reserved the right to approve or disapprove their marriages. An officer/woman was thus required to petition & get the written permission of his C.O before actually falling in love with and marrying the woman of his choice.